

Speed and ease of communication is essential to stay competitive in today's economy. Job consolidations and reductions have limited time available. Faxing to EXISTING customers is a convenient, prudent and helpfull way to expand benefits for both parties. It does not need government control, intervention or protection. Please withdraw the ban of fax communication without the burdensome "permission" process you propose. Thank you very much. Mark Kramer, President & CEO.